

Financial Controller

Riverside Community Health Foundation is seeking a full time, experienced Financial Controller. This position is responsible for ensuring that the Foundation is operating effectively and efficiently in managing accounting and monitoring internal controls.

Duties to include: banking and financial activities, proper reporting, finance accounting, provide direction and coordination of the budget; prepare monthly financial statements, and implement protocols and procedures, and systems to support organizational needs.